S-1 11/22/68

Venezuela Captures Ship—Havana

MIAMI (AP)—Two Venezuelan warships attacked a Cuban fishing vessel with cannon and machine gun fire today and ordered her into a Venezuelan port, Havana Radio reported. The captain of the Cuban vessel Alecrin reported heavy damage in the attack 100 miles north of the Venezuelan coast, said the broadcast monitored in Miami. The Alecrin was fishing with other Cuban ships, the radio said.